AMS PERIODICALS

JOURNAL OF THE ATMOSPHERIC SCIENCES. Semi-monthly. Basic research related to the physics, dynamics, and chemistry of the atmosphere of the earth and other planets, with emphasis on the quantitative and deductive aspects of the subject.

JOURNAL OF APPLIED METEOROLOGY. Monthly. Applied research related to physical meteorology, cloud physics, hydrology, weather modification, satellite meteorology, boundary layer processes, air pollution meteorology (including dispersion and chemical processes), agricultural and forest meteorology, and applied meteorological numerical models of all types.

JOURNAL OF PHYSICAL OCEANOGRAPHY. Monthly. Original research extending our knowledge of ocean physics and the processes acting at its boundaries, including its interaction with the atmosphere and at the sea floor. Papers report observational and theoretical studies of topics such as: ocean and coastal circulation; interpretive regional analyses; ice and water mass formation; eddies, jets and fronts; tides; planetary waves; surface and internal gravity waves; and ocean microstructure.

MONTHLY WEATHER REVIEW. Monthly. Research related to analysis and prediction of observed and modeled circulations of the atmosphere, including technique development, data assimilation, model validation, and relevant case studies. This includes papers on numerical techniques and data assimilation techniques that apply to the atmosphere and/or ocean environment.

JOURNAL OF ATMOSPHERIC AND OCEANIC TECHNOLOGY. Monthly. Papers describing the instrumentation and methodology used in atmospheric and oceanic research including computational techniques, methods for data acquisition, processing, and interpretation, and information systems and algorithms.

WEATHER AND FORECASTING. Bimonthly. Articles on forecasting and analysis techniques, forecast verification studies, and case studies useful to forecasters. Also includes submissions that report on changes to the suite of operational numerical models and statistical post-processing techniques, and articles that demonstrate the transfer of research results to the forecasting community.

JOURNAL OF CLIMATE. Semi-monthly. Articles concerned with climate data and analysis, long-term atmospheric variability (seasonal, interannual), climate change and prediction on seasonal and longer time scales, and the impacts of climate change on society.

EARTH INTERACTIONS. Irregular. Publishes in the electronic medium original research in the earth system sciences with emphasis on interdisciplinary studies. Within this framework, the journal particularly encourages submissions that deal with interactions among lithosphere, hydrosphere, atmosphere, and biosphere in the context of global issues or global change.

JOURNAL OF HYDROMETEOROLOGY. Bimonthly. Research related to the modeling, observing, and forecasting of processes related to water and energy fluxes and storage terms, including interactions with the boundary layer and lower atmosphere, and including processes related to precipitation, radiation, and other meteorological inputs.

BULLETIN OF THE AMERICAN METEOROLOGICAL SOCIETY. Monthly. The official organ of the society, devoted to editorials, topical reports to members, articles, professional and membership news, conference announcements, programs, and summaries, book reviews, and Society activities.

METEOROLOGICAL & GEOASTROPHYSICAL ABSTRACTS. Monthly. Abstracts of current world literature in meteorology, climatology, aeronomy, planetary atmospheres, solar-terrestrial relations, hydrology, oceanography, glaciology, cosmic rays, and radioastronomy. The abstracts of books, articles, and reprints are arranged by subject categories with extensive cross-referencing. Monthly author, subject, and geographical indexes. All inquiries for MGA and MGA's computerized database should be directed to: Cambridge Scientific Abstracts, 7200 Wisconsin Avenue, Bethesda, MD 20814, (301) 961-6700

constitution and bylaws of the AMS

CONSTITUTION with amendments to 1 August 1990

ARTICLE I. Name

This Society shall be called the American Meteorological Society.

ARTICLE II. Objectives

The objectives of this Society are the development and dissemination of knowledge of the atmospheric and related oceanic and hydrologic sciences and the advancement of their professional applications.

The Society shall be a nonprofit organization, and none of its net income or net worth shall inure to the benefit of its members. Its membership and activities shall be international in scope.

ARTICLE III. Membership

1. The AMS membership shall be comprised of individuals, corporations, and institutions interested in the advancement of the goals and objectives of the Society.
2. The membership of the Society shall consist of:

Honorary Members
Fellows
Members
Associate Members
Corporation and Institutional Members
Student Members

Only Honorary Members, Fellows, and Members are eligible to vote, to hold office, and to be members of the Council, with such further limitations as may be imposed by this Constitution and Bylaws. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, those in the grade of Member on 31 December 1965, who became Associate Members on that date, are eligible to vote. Professional Members on 31 December 1972 shall be designated Members thereafter.

3. The Council shall elect members to the grades of membership for which they are deemed qualified within the requirements specified in this Article. The Council may delegate the election to nonvoting grades to such constituent body or elected or appointed officer as it may deem appropriate.
4. Those eligible for election to Member shall satisfy one or more of the following categories of criteria:
 - A. Hold a baccalaureate or higher degree in the atmospheric or related oceanic or hydrologic sciences from an accredited institution of higher learning;
 - B. Hold a baccalaureate or higher degree from an accredited institution of higher learning in other sciences or engineering, and be currently engaged in an activity in which his or her knowledge is applied to the advancement or application of the atmospheric or related oceanic or hydrologic sciences;
 - C. Have completed 20 semester hours of credit in the atmospheric or related oceanic or hydrologic sciences at an accredited institution of higher learning and have three years of professional experience in the last five years in the application of atmospheric or related oceanic or hydrologic sciences;
 - D. Notwithstanding the provisions of the above criteria, the Council may elect as a Member such other persons deemed to have made an outstanding contribution to the advancement or application of atmospheric or related oceanic or hydrologic sciences.
5. Honorary Members shall be persons of acknowledged preeminence in the atmospheric or related oceanic or hydrologic sciences, either through their own contributions to the sciences or their application or through furtherance of the advance of those sciences in some other way. They shall be exempt from all dues and assessments.

6. Those eligible for election to Fellow shall have made outstanding contributions to the atmospheric or related oceanic or hydrologic sciences or their application during a substantial period of years.
7. Corporations and other organizations desirous of supporting the atmospheric or related oceanic or hydrologic sciences or their application are eligible for election to Corporate and Institutional Member.
8. Those eligible for election to Student Member shall be graduate or undergraduate students enrolled at least half-time at an accredited institution of higher learning.
9. Those eligible as candidates for election to Associate Member shall be persons interested in the advancement and objectives and goals of the Society who do not qualify or choose to apply under another category of membership.

ARTICLE IV. Dues

The dues of all members shall be set by the Council from time to time and shall become effective and payable on such notice to the members as the Bylaws may provide.

ARTICLE V. Elective Offices

1. The elective officers of the Society shall be:
 - A. A President, who shall be the immediate past President-Elect;
 - B. A President-Elect.
2. The term of office of the President and President-Elect shall be approximately one year pursuant to the terms of Article VI, paragraph 7.
3. If the office of President becomes vacant, the President-Elect shall assume the authorities and responsibilities of President for the remainder of the unexpired term.
4. If the office of President-Elect becomes vacant, the office shall remain vacant until the next general election, at which time both a President and President-Elect shall be elected.
5. These officers, in addition to the duties specifically assigned to them by the Constitution and Bylaws, shall discharge any other duties incident to their respective offices.

ARTICLE VI. Nomination and Election of Officers and Councilors

1. The Council shall arrange for the nomination of candidates for each elective office and Council position to be filled.

Nominations also may be made by petition signed by at least 50 members eligible to vote on the preceding 1 May, provided the petition is received by the Secretary–Treasurer together with the written consent of the nominee not later than 1 September.

2. The election of elective Officers and Councilors by members eligible to vote shall be by mail ballot.
3. At least 90 days prior to the Annual Meeting, the Secretary–Treasurer shall mail to each member eligible to vote a ballot containing the names of the nominees for elective office and Councilor. The ballot may contain any questions designated by the Council or by a petition signed by at least 50 members who were eligible to vote on the preceding 1 May.
4. The ballots shall be cast by mail and, to be counted, must be received by the Secretary–Treasurer at the headquarters of the Society at least 30 days prior to the date of the next Annual Meeting.

Each member eligible to vote shall be entitled to one vote for President-Elect and one vote for each Council vacancy to be filled by election by the membership. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes cast for President-Elect and the appropriate number of candidates for Councilor receiving the highest number of votes cast shall be declared elected.

In the event of any tie vote between two or more candidates for any office, including that of President-Elect, the retiring Council shall choose between said candidates by ballot.

5. In the event of a vacancy on the Council, which vacancy would extend beyond the next business meeting, the vacancy shall be filled by that person receiving the next highest number of votes, after those elected for a full term, in the election immediately following the vacancy.
6. Any elective Officer or Councilor may be removed from office for due cause by a vote of at least two-thirds of those Council members who are eligible to vote.

7. The term of office of the elective Officers and Councilors shall commence at the adjournment of the Annual Meeting at which their election is announced and shall end when their successors take office.
8. The Council may adopt additional rules governing elections not inconsistent with the Constitution and Bylaws.

ARTICLE VII. Council

1. The corporate powers of the Society shall be vested in the Council subject to the Constitution and Bylaws of the Society. The Council shall be the principal governing body of the Society. It consists of the elective officers, the last two Past-Presidents, and 15 other voting members of the Society, each elected for a three-year term, with one-third retiring each year. Councilors are eligible for reelection but not to consecutive terms. The Executive Director and Secretary–Treasurer shall be members of the Council ex officio and without the power to vote.
2. Five Councilors shall be elected each year for a term of three years. Four of said Councilors shall be elected by members eligible to vote in accordance with the procedure set forth in Article VI of the Constitution. One of said Councilors shall be elected by the Council of the Society by the majority vote of the membership of the Council eligible to vote or by mail ballot by an affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the entire Council entitled to vote. The ballot shall be mailed to each member of the Council by the Secretary–Treasurer and, to be counted, shall be returned to the Secretary–Treasurer not later than 30 days after the ballot was mailed. The term of office shall commence upon adjournment of the Annual Meeting and shall end when his or her successor takes office.
3. The Council shall appoint, upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee, an Executive Director. The Council shall further appoint, upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee and Executive Director, a Secretary–Treasurer. Appointment in each case shall require an affirmative vote of a majority of those Council members eligible to vote. The Executive Director may be removed from office only by at least a two-thirds vote of those Council members eligible to vote. The Secretary–Treasurer may be removed by a vote of a majority of those Council members eligible to vote.
4. The Council may appoint other such officers as may be convenient and may make any interim appointments to vacancies not otherwise provided for in the Constitution or Bylaws.

5. If the Council, at its first meeting after a meeting of the members of the Society, determines that any resolution adopted by the members affects the fundamental rights of the membership, then such resolution shall be submitted immediately by mail ballot to all members eligible to vote. Approval shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of those voting. The ballots to be counted shall be received by the Secretary–Treasurer within 30 days of the date mailed.

ARTICLE VIII. Constituent and Affiliated Bodies

1. Executive Committee
 - A. There shall be an Executive Committee that shall consist of:
 - a) The President, who shall be the Chairman;
 - b) The President-Elect, who shall be the Vice-Chairman;
 - c) The two most immediate Past-Presidents;
 - d) Two members of the Council, other than those named in the preceding paragraphs a), b), and c), who shall be elected by the Council, one each year for a term of two years; and
 - e) The Executive Director and Secretary–Treasurer, each ex officio and without the power to vote.
 - B. A majority of voting members of the Executive Committee, at least one of whom shall be the President or President-Elect, shall constitute a quorum. The affirmative vote of a majority, but not fewer than three members of the Executive Committee, shall be required for the resolution of any question.
 - C. The Executive Committee shall function as the executive arm of the Council within the policies established by the Council. The Committee shall meet as often as it deems necessary, and it is empowered to interpret and execute Council policies when the Council is not in session.
2. Other Constituent Bodies
 - A. Other constituent bodies, such as Commissions, Boards, and Committees of the Society are provided for in the Organizational Procedures.
 - B. The names, purposes, membership, terms of office of members, and terms of reference to all constituent bodies provided for by the Organizational Procedures or established by the Council shall be published. This publication shall be updated at least annually by the issue of amendments or by such other means as may be determined by the Council.

3. Affiliated Bodies

Local chapters or other affiliated bodies of the Society may be organized with the consent of the Council, and the Council shall promulgate rules governing their activities. These rules shall be set forth in the Organizational Procedures. The Council may withdraw its consent for good cause.

ARTICLE IX. Appointed Officers

1. The appointed officers shall be the Executive Director and the Secretary–Treasurer.
2. Their appointment shall require a majority vote of the entire Council membership that is eligible to vote.
3. Removal of the Executive Director shall only be by vote of at least two-thirds of the entire Council that is eligible to vote. Removal of the Secretary–Treasurer shall be by majority vote of the entire Council membership that is eligible to vote.
4. The Executive Director:
 - A. Shall be appointed by the Council, upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee; and
 - B. Shall serve as Chief Executive Officer and be responsible for the administration of the Society’s headquarters and all activities in accordance with the Constitution and Bylaws.
5. The Secretary–Treasurer:
 - A. Shall be appointed by the Council upon recommendation of the Executive Committee and the Executive Director; and
 - B. Shall have such powers and duties as are provided in the Constitution and Bylaws and be administratively responsible to the Executive Director.

ARTICLE X. Meetings

1. There shall be an Annual Meeting, between 25 December and 31 March next following, of the members of the Society at a time and place designated by the Council. Notice of the time and place of the Annual Meeting shall be given to the membership by the Secretary–Treasurer not less than 60 days before the date on which the Annual Meeting is held. Other meetings of members shall be held at a time and place designated by the Council, and the Secretary–Treasurer shall give notice of the meeting not less than 30 days before the date on which the meeting is held.

2. The rules contained in Robert’s Rules of Order Revised shall govern all business meetings of the Society unless inconsistent with the Constitution, Bylaws, or any standing rules of the Society.
3. A quorum for the transaction of business at an Annual Meeting shall be at least 50 members present who are eligible to vote. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members present who are eligible to vote shall be required for the resolution of any question.

The Council may make other rules for meetings not inconsistent with the Constitution or Bylaws. Business not set forth in the notice of the meeting shall not be transacted if five members eligible to vote object.

4. The fiscal year of the Society shall conform to the calendar year.

ARTICLE XI. Publications

The Society shall publish an official organ and such additional journals, papers, books and the like as may be authorized by the Council.

ARTICLE XII. Guidelines for Professional Conduct

To enhance the benefits of the meteorological and related professions to humanity, to uphold the dignity and honor of the profession, and to provide guidance for individual members, institutional members, or for members in association with other professionals, the American Meteorological Society has adopted the following Guidelines for Professional Conduct. Only individuals and organizations who intend to abide by these Guidelines should seek admission or continuing membership in the Society; therefore, these Guidelines will appear on the membership application form and will be published at least annually in the official organ of the Society.

1. Relationship of members to the profession as a whole.
 - A. Members should conduct themselves in such a manner as to reflect dignity and honor on their profession.
 - B. Members who are professionally active should endeavor to keep abreast of relevant scientific and technical developments; they should continuously strive to improve their professional abilities.
 - C. Members engaged in the development of new knowledge should make known to the scientific world their significant results through the media of technical or scientific publications or meetings.

2. Relationship of members to colleagues.

Members should not take credit knowingly for work done by others; in publications or meetings, members should attempt to give credit where due.

3. Relationship of members to clients and the general public.

- A. Members should base their practice on sound scientific principles applied in a scientific manner.
- B. Members should not direct their professional activities into practices generally recognized as being detrimental to, or incompatible with, the general public welfare.
- C. Members undertaking work for a client should fully advise him or her as to the likelihood of success.
- D. Members should refrain from making exaggerated or unwarranted claims and statements.

E. Members should refer requests for service that are beyond their professional capabilities or their scope of service to those properly qualified.

F. Members shall not use or display the official seal of the American Meteorological Society, the Radio Seal of Approval, the Television Seal of Approval, or the designation Certified Consulting Meteorologist unless duly authorized by the Society.

ARTICLE XIII. Amendments to the Constitution

1. No part of the Constitution shall be amended or annulled except by mail ballot in the following manner: A proposed amendment shall be approved by the Council or submitted to the Secretary–Treasurer in a petition signed by at least 50 members eligible to vote on the preceding 1 May. The proposed amendment, with the reasons therefor, shall be published in the official organ of the Society at least 90 days before ballots for the amendment are mailed.

2. A proposed amendment, accompanied by a ballot, shall be mailed by the Secretary–Treasurer to each member eligible to vote at least 60 days prior to the date the ballots are to be counted. The ballots to be counted must be received by the Secretary–Treasurer not later than 60 days after they are mailed.

3. The adoption of a proposed amendment shall require the affirmative votes of at least two-thirds of all members voting.

BYLAWS

ARTICLE I. Council

1. The President shall be Chairman of the Council and the President-Elect shall be Vice-Chairman.

2. The Council shall meet at the close of the Annual Meeting. The President may convoke the Council in special meeting at such time as he or she may deem advisable for promoting the affairs of the Society. A special meeting of the Council shall be called by the President whenever requested in writing by five or more members of the Council. Notices of all special meetings shall state the purpose or purposes for which such meetings are called. At least 30 days' written notice of the place and date of any special meeting shall be given by the Secretary–Treasurer to each member of the Council.

3. A member of the Council must be present to be entitled to vote. An affirmative vote of a majority of the Councilors present, but not fewer than eight, shall be required for the resolution of any question, unless the matter is one that by express provision of the Constitution or By-laws requires a greater proportion, in which event such express provision shall control. Eleven Council members eligible to vote shall constitute a quorum.

4. Business of the Council may be transacted by mail ballot at the direction of the President. The ballot shall be mailed to each member of the Council and the ballots to be counted shall be returned to the Secretary–Treasurer not later than 30 days after the date the ballot was mailed. An affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the Council eligible to vote shall be required for the resolution of any question by mail ballot. If, on the date the ballots are to be counted, the Secretary–Treasurer has received in writing from five or more Councilors a request with the reasons therefor that the vote be postponed, the postponement will take place and the matter at issue shall be submitted to a second vote in accordance with the procedure set forth in the two preceding sentences.

If the President declares that action by the Council is urgent, he may direct that a vote be taken by telephone or telegram, provided that telegraphic confirmation is received from each Councilor voting by the Secretary–Treasurer within a time determined by the President.

5. The Council shall arrange for the nomination of candidates for each elective office and Council position to be filled. A report of a recommended slate shall be submitted by 1 May of each year to the Secretary–Treasurer for transmittal to the Executive Committee for its approval. The Secretary–Treasurer shall then give the report, not later than 15 July, to all members eligible to vote.
6. The Council is in general charge of the affairs of the Society, responsible for ensuring that reasonable actions are taken to accomplish the objectives of the Society set forth in the Constitution and Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI. Executive Director

- 1. The Executive Director shall serve as Chief Executive Officer and be responsible for the administration of the Society's headquarters and all activities in accordance with the Constitution and Bylaws.
- 2. The Executive Director shall be responsible to the Executive Committee for the continuing management of the Society in all respects, except as specifically reserved by the Executive Committee or Council.

ARTICLE VII. Secretary–Treasurer

1. The Secretary–Treasurer shall have such powers and duties as are provided in the Constitution and Bylaws.
2. The Secretary–Treasurer shall be responsible to the Council and shall be administratively responsible to the Executive Director and can be removed by a majority vote of the voting membership of the Council.
3. The Secretary–Treasurer shall:
 - A. Serve as Parliamentarian for meetings of the Council and Executive Committee;
 - B. Keep a record of all business meetings of the Society, Council, and the Executive Committee;
 - C. As provided in these Bylaws and any amendments thereof, give notice of all meetings of the Society and Council;
 - D. Keep a correct list of the name and current address of every member of the Society;
 - E. Secure the written consent of all candidates for elective office before giving the report of the recommended slate to the Members eligible to vote;
 - F. Give notice of election to all persons elected to membership in the Society;
 - G. Keep the accounts, have charge of all the funds of the Society, collect all annual dues and other payments due the Society, and make all payments for the Society;
4. With the approval of the Executive Committee, the Secretary–Treasurer may delegate to such person or persons as he or she thinks best, power to sign for the Society checks of any amount not in excess of such amount to be determined by the Executive Committee from time to time. In the absence of or in the event of the unavailability of the Secretary–Treasurer, or during a vacancy in that office, the duties may be performed by an interim appointee.

ARTICLE VIII. Amendments to the Bylaws

No part of the Bylaws shall be amended except in the following manner: a proposed amendment shall be submitted to each member of the Council for his or her notice and comment at least thirty (30) days before the Council meeting at which a vote on the proposed amendment is to be taken. After notice is given, the proposed amendment must be approved by a vote of Council of at least two-thirds of the Council members eligible to vote.

AMS Diversity Statement

The American Meteorological Society promotes the participation of a full and diverse community in all activities of the Society on the basis of professional attributes alone. Such activities include publications, meetings, conferences, education, awards and honors, and employment. The Society firmly believes that discrimination based on any nonmerit factor will prevent the Society from reaching its full potential. Accordingly, it is the policy of the Society to encourage the fullest diversity of its participants and to ensure that all of the Society's activities will be carried out free of nonmerit discriminatory practices.
