

Editor's Award Winners

1969

Norman A. Phillips "for his referee's reports of outstanding merit on manuscripts submitted for publication in the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences. In addition, he has had a most important influence in establishing and helping to maintain the high standards of JAS."

1970

Chester W. Newton "for his referee's reports of outstanding merit on manuscripts submitted for publication in the Journal of Applied Meteorology. By such work the Society's journals are substantially improved."

1971

Peter V. Hobbs "for his referee's reports of outstanding merit on manuscripts submitted for publication in both the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences and Journal of Applied Meteorology."

1972

James W. Deardorff "for his critical and conscientious review of manuscripts for the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences, resulting in considerable improvement in its scientific quality, and thereby contributing significantly to the high standards of the journal."

1973

George W. Platzman "for his extraordinarily conscientious and comprehensive reviews on behalf of the Journal of Physical Oceanography."

1974

Norihiko Fukuta "for his consistently detailed, knowledgeable and perceptive reviews for the Journal of Applied Meteorology. His constructive criticisms have surpassed simple criticism and have led to the strengthening of many manuscripts, and therefore of the journal as a whole."

1975

Gabriel T. Csanady "for his seemingly endless capacity for truly meaningful reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Physical Oceanography. It is through the untiring efforts of such individuals that this journal has been built."

1976

Stanley L. Barnes "for his thoughtful and detailed reviews and supportive assistance to the Editor during the transition of the Monthly Weather Review to the American Meteorological Society."

Robert E. Dickinson "for his unusually constructive and authoritative reviews of scientific contributions to the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences, reviews which have led to substantial improvement of both the quality and style of the journal."

1978

Jerry D. Mahlman "for his thorough and authoritative reviews of manuscripts submitted to both the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences and Meteorological Monographs. His perceptive suggestions have led to substantial improvements of several important contributions."

1979

John M. Wallace "for his uniformly excellent reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Monthly Weather Review and other publications of the Society."

1980

Kenneth H. Bergman "for his insight and thorough reviews of numerous manuscripts in the Journal of Applied Meteorology through thoughtful comments leading to improvement of the papers and grateful recognition of his endeavors by the authors."

1981

Julian P. McCreary, Jr. "for providing constructive and thought-provoking reviews on numerous manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Physical Oceanography."

1982

Robert A. Houze, Jr. "for his referee's reports of outstanding merit on manuscripts submitted to the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences."

1983

Roland A. Madden "for his critical and insightful reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Monthly Weather Review and other publications of the Society."

1984

Arnold Court "for his consistently prompt, thorough, and constructive reviews of manuscripts that contributed to the high quality and standards of the Society's publications."

1985

Kenneth H. Brink "for his informed, penetrating, and prompt reviews. They have been exceptionally helpful to the authors and editors of the Journal of Physical Oceanography."

1986

Robert P. Davies-Jones "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences."

Michael B. Richman "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Climate and Applied Meteorology."

Dean H. Roemich "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Physical Oceanography."

Ronald B. Smith "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Monthly Weather Review."

Alvin L. Morris "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology."

1987

Greg J. Holland and John L. McBride "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts to the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences."

Edwin L. Crow "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Climate and Applied Meteorology."

Andrew F. Bennett "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Physical Oceanography."

James E. Dye "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology."

1988

James R. Holton "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences."

Thomas R. Karl "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Climate and Applied Meteorology."

Glenn R. Lerley "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Physical Oceanography."

William A. Cooper "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology."

1989

Margaret A. Lemone "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences."

Gary A. Briggs "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Applied Meteorology."

Daniel Keyser "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Monthly Weather Review."

Andrew J. Weinheimer "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology."

Kevin E. Trenberth "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Climate."

1990

William Blumen "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences."

Andrew N. Staniforth "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Monthly Weather Review."

Robert E. Livezey "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Climate."

Dennis H. McCarthy "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to Weather and Forecasting."

1991

John M. Brown "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences."

Peter Müller "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Physical Oceanography."

Norman W. Junker "for his editorial contributions to the Special Issue of Weather and Forecasting on the National Meteorological Center published in 1989."

Bradley F. Smull "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences."

Paul L. Smith "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Applied Meteorology."

Ann E. Gargett "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Physical Oceanography."

John R. Gyakum "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Monthly Weather Review."

Stuart D. Smith "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology."

John E. Walsh "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Climate."

1993

Dennis L. Hartmann "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences."

Paola Malanotte-Rizzoli "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Physical Oceanography."

Philip J. Rasch "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Monthly Weather Review."

Dusan S. Zrnica "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology."

Joseph T. Schaefer "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to Weather and Forecasting."

David S. Gutzler "for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Climate."

1994

Chin-Hoh Moeng "for meticulous reviews of papers on the boundary layers and turbulent fluxes for the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences."

Carmen J. Nappo "for timely, high quality reviews of manuscripts related to turbulence and diffusion for the Journal of Applied Meteorology."

John M. Huthnance "for knowledgeable, penetrating, thorough reviews for the Journal of Physical Oceanography."

Marilyn M. Wolfson "for consistently insightful reviews focusing on critical points for the Monthly Weather Review."

Albert J. Plueddemann "for multiple, prompt, and thorough reviews for the Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology."

Charles A. Doswell III "for providing penetrating and thought-provoking reviews on numerous manuscripts submitted to Weather and Forecasting."

John R. Lanzante "for punctual, thorough, and constructive reviews for the Journal of Climate."

1995

Marvin A. Geller "for outstanding leadership in initiating, executing, and implementing the JAS Special Issue on results from the Upper Atmosphere Research Satellite (UARS) for the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences."

Witold F. Krajewski "for attracting papers in hydrometeorology, and for rapid, conscientious evaluation of manuscripts for the Journal of Applied Meteorology."

William G. Large "for critical reviews which have decidedly helped the editors to maintain the standard of publication for the Journal of Physical Oceanography."

Michael L. Kaplan "for unusually thorough reviews which cover both the procedures used and the results for Monthly Weather Review."

Robert E. Cheney "for many thoughtful and high quality reviews submitted promptly over the past six years for the Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology."

Paul J. Kocin "for coordination of the series of Special Issues on Regional Forecasting Problems within the National Weather Service for Weather and Forecasting."

Richard D. Rosen "for such insightful and constructive reviews that an author twice expressed his gratitude in writing to the chief editor and that two editors have reported on his prompt, incisive, and fair reviews for the Journal of Climate."

1996

Qin Xu "for many prompt, insightful, and thorough reviews for the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences."

Jeremy M. Hales "for excellent coordination of a special issue on atmospheric chemistry and for assisting in the review of several related manuscripts for the Journal of Applied Meteorology."

Edward S. Sarachik "for many constructive reviews that have assisted the editors in maintaining the journal's high standards for the Journal of Physical Oceanography."

Richard E. Orville "for outstanding work in organizing the special issue on lightning and atmospheric electricity for Monthly Weather Review."

Dudley B. Chelton "for responsive reviews and generous assistance as associate editor for the Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology."

J. Paul Dallavalle "for consistently comprehensive, insightful, and constructive reviews as an associate editor for Weather and Forecasting."

Dennis L. Hartmann "for wise judgment and comments that invariably improved the quality of published papers for the Journal of Climate."

1997

David J. Raymond "for prompt and fair evaluation of a large number of complex manuscripts" for the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences.

Grant W. Petty "for his exceptionally careful and insightful reviews in the area of satellite remote sensing" for the Journal of Applied Meteorology.

Edward C. Monahan "for frequent, extremely thorough, scholarly, and constructive reviews" in the Journal of Physical Oceanography.

John W. Nielsen-Gammon "for timely, concise, and insightful reviews for manuscripts pertaining to a variety of topics covered by the Monthly Weather Review."

Walter F. Dabberdt "for consistently constructive and fair reviews" for the Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology.

Allan H. Murphy "for highly knowledgeable and constructive reviews of many papers requiring statistical expertise" for Weather and Forecasting.

Clara Deser "for her reviews are thorough, concise, and crystal clear, and have a beauty and completeness akin to a fine piece of art" for the Journal of Climate.

1998

Brian E. Mapes "for consistently giving thought-provoking reviews on manuscripts dealing with tropical convection" for the Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences.

Ramesh C. Srivastava "for his thoughtful reviews with criticisms aimed at improving the manuscript" for the Journal of Applied Meteorology.

Claes G. Rooth "for insightful reviews of difficult and sometimes controversial manuscripts" for the Journal of Physical Oceanography.

Kevin R. Knupp "for a record of consistently on-time, thorough, and constructive reviews" for the Monthly Weather Review.

Lucy R. Wyatt "for careful and prompt reviews beyond what could be reasonably expected by an editor" for the Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology.

Stephen F. Corfidi "for many comprehensive and constructive reviews that enhanced the presentation of the contributors research" for Weather and Forecasting.

Dennis L. Hartmann "for his conscientious, thorough, and insightful reviews on a wide range of subjects" for the Journal of Climate.

1999

Xubin Zeng "for providing prompt, constructive reviews on seven papers over the last year."

Francis L. Ludwig "for consistently providing high-quality reviews, as demonstrated by an exceptional effort in the past year."

Seelye Martin "for conscientious and careful reviews of several manuscripts submitted during the last year."

Edward J. Zipser "for consistent record of prompt, constructive, and thorough reviews of an unusually large number of manuscripts covering a wide range of subjects."

R. Paul Lawson “for technical expertise and insightful reviews that have done so much to maintain the high standards.”

Warren Blier “for exhaustive, prompt, scholarly reviews and a commitment to mentor operational meteorologists in their efforts to publish in the refereed literature.”

John E. Walsh “for consistently providing comprehensive, insightful and constructive reviews on a broad range of issues related to climatic variability and change.”

2000:

Journal of Atmospheric Science

David L. Mitchell, “for timely and consistently high-quality reviews.”

Journal of Applied Meteorology

Marvin L. Wesely, “for his fair-minded and careful reviews.”

Journal of Physical Oceanography

Frank S. Henyey, “for astute reviews of several difficult papers.”

Monthly Weather Review

Colleen A. Leary, “for forthright and thoughtful reviews.”

Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology

Luc R. Bissonnette, “for technical expertise and insight that have contributed to the high standards of the journal.”

Weather and Forecasting

Adrian Marroquin, “for highly detailed, logical, and critically insightful reviews.”

Journal of Climate

Gerald A. Meehl, “for consistently comprehensive, insightful and constructive reviews on a range of climate issues.”

2001:

Journal of Atmospheric Science

Bjorn B. Stevens “for many thoughtful reviews that have helped add scholarly perspective to papers.”

Journal of Applied Meteorology

Rod Frehlich “for exceptional efforts in making very professional and clear suggestions for the improvement of manuscripts.”

Journal of Physical Oceanography

Jerome A. Smith “for providing exceptionally meritorious reviews of manuscripts.”

Monthly Weather Review

David M. Schultz “for providing extremely thorough, timely, and constructive evaluations of a large number of manuscripts over a diverse range of topics, and for special assistance to the editors in evaluating controversial issues.”

Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology

Craig J. Donlan “for his insightful reviews.”

Weather and Forecasting

Steven J. Weiss “for the completion of several extremely knowledgeable, very constructive, and remarkably thorough reviews for manuscripts focused on severe weather detection and prediction.”

Journal of Climate

Song Yang “for providing multiple, prompt, comprehensive, and thoughtful reviews.”

Journal of Hydrometeorology

Katherine K. Hirschboeck “for exceptionally thorough reviews of papers submitted during the journal’s inaugural year.”

2002:

Journal of Atmospheric Science

Christopher S. Bretherton “for insightful reviews of papers on planetary boundary layers and clouds.”

Journal of Applied Meteorology

Chris J. Walcek “for thoughtful, thorough, and fair reviews that improve the quality of submitted papers.”

Journal of Physical Oceanography

William K. Dewar “for thoughtful and constructive reviews that reflect commitment both to scientific progress and to the scientific community.”

Monthly Weather Review

Thomas M. Hamill “for thorough, timely, and constructive reviews over a breadth of topics, and for valuable arbitration of conflicting reviews.”

Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology

Norman Donaldson “for an extremely thorough and insightful review that greatly improved the quality of the paper.”

Weather and Forecasting

Christopher W. Landsea “for outstanding service through original reviews and thoughtful opinions on controversial manuscripts.”

Journal of Climate

Adrian J. Matthews “for several timely, comprehensive, and helpful reviews.”

JOURNAL OF HYDROMETEOROLOGY

Matthias Steiner “for insightful and constructive reviews and for his dedication to the overall quality of the review process.”

2003:

JOURNAL OF THE ATMOSPHERIC SCIENCES

Andrew A. White

JOURNAL OF APPLIED METEOROLOGY

Robert E. Schlesinger

JOURNAL OF PHYSICAL OCEANOGRAPHY

Bernadette M. Sloyan

MONTHLY WEATHER REVIEW

Gary M. Lackmann

JOURNAL OF ATMOSPHERIC AND OCEANIC TECHNOLOGY

James L. Mueller,

WEATHER AND FORECASTING

Michael E. Baldwin

JOURNAL OF CLIMATE

William H. Lipscomb

JOURNAL OF HYDROMETEOROLOGY

Robert J. Kuligowski

2004:

Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences

Dr. Andrew Gettelman

“for thoughtful, detailed, and constructive reviews of papers on convective mixing and stratosphere-troposphere exchange processes.”

Journal of Applied Meteorology

Dr. Robert E. Davis

University of Virginia

“for going beyond critique and providing constructive alternative approaches concerning fundamental issue of analysis.”

Journal of Physical Oceanography

Prof. Matthew H. Alford

University of Washington

“for unusually prompt, perceptive, well-balanced, and constructive reviews.”

Monthly Weather Review
Dr. Paul J. Roebber
University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee

“for completing many difficult reviews that were very thorough, constructive, and returned in a timely fashion.”

Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology
Dr. Gerhard Peters
Meteorologisches Institut, Hamburg Germany

“for many thoughtful and comprehensive reviews that have resulted in significantly improved manuscripts.”

Weather and Forecasting
Mr. Matthew Bunkers
NWS Forecast Office, Rapid City, SD

“for thorough, signed reviews that consistently assisted authors in improving their manuscripts.”

Journal of Climate
Prof. Tsing-Chang Chen
Iowa State University

“for conscientious reviews that have materially helped to uphold the standards of the journal.”

Journal of Hydrometeorology
Dr. Danny Marks
USDA-ARS Northwest Watershed Research Center

“for thorough and insightful reviews intended to enhance the quality of authors' contributions to the journal.”

2005:

THE EDITOR'S AWARD

Journal of the Atmospheric Sciences

OLAF STILLER

Research Scientist, UK Met Office, Bracknell, United Kingdom.

“for willingness to provide thoughtful and prompt reviews of papers for which it was otherwise difficult to find reviewers”

THE EDITOR'S AWARD

Journal of Applied Meteorology

THOMAS F. ECK

Research Scientist, NASA/GSFC, Greenbelt, Maryland.

University of Maryland, Baltimore County, Baltimore, Maryland.

“for exercising extraordinary diligence and tact in a review that led to notable improvement of an important piece of work”

THE EDITOR’S AWARD

Monthly Weather Review

T. N. KRISHNAMURTI

Professor, Department of Meteorology, Florida State University, Tallahassee, Florida.

“for consistently providing insightful and timely reviews that significantly benefited the MWR editorial process”

THE EDITOR’S AWARD

Journal of Physical Oceanography

ALEXANDER V BABANIN

Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Engineering and Industrial Sciences, Swinburne University of Technology, Hawthorn, Victoria, Australia.

“for thorough reviews balancing insightful criticism with constructive comments”

THE EDITOR’S AWARD

Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology

LEE-LUENG FU

Senior Research Scientist, Jet Propulsion Laboratory, California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, California.

“for consistently thoughtful and detailed reviews, often returned well in advance of the requested due dates”

THE EDITOR’S AWARD

Weather and Forecasting

BEN C. BERNSTEIN

Associate Scientist, National Center for Atmospheric Research, Boulder, Colorado.

“for sound, thorough, helpful, and detailed reviews that consistently assisted authors in improving their manuscripts”

THE EDITOR’S AWARD

Journal of Climate

C. ADAM SCHLOSSER

Research Scientist, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

“for thoughtful, constructive, and considerate comments that contributed to substantial improvements to the scientific content of a manuscript”

THE EDITOR’S AWARD

Journal of Hydrometeorology

GUIDO SALVUCCI

Associate Professor, Departments of Geography and Earth Sciences, Boston University, Boston, Massachusetts.

“for thorough and incisive reviews of papers that markedly improved the quality and impact of papers in JHM”

2006:

JOURNAL OF THE ATMOSPHERIC SCIENCES

R. ALAN PLUMB

Professor of Meteorology and Director, Program in Atmospheres, Oceans, and Climate, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Massachusetts

For his enormous efforts in support of the JAS special issue on the Antarctic stratospheric sudden warming and split ozone hole of 2002.

JOURNAL OF APPLIED METEOROLOGY

MICHAEL TJERNSTROM

Professor, Department of Meteorology, Stockholm University, Stockholm, Sweden

For exceptionally thorough and timely reviews of manuscripts submitted to the Journal of Applied Meteorology.

JOURNAL OF PHYSICAL OCEANOGRAPHY

TREVOR J. MCDOUGALL

Chief Research Scientist, CSIRO Marine and Atmospheric Research, Hobart, Australia

For detailed, constructive, and sometimes entertaining reviews of numerous difficult manuscripts.

MONTHLY WEATHER REVIEW

MARK T. STOELINGA

Research Assistant Professor, Department of Atmospheric Sciences, University of Washington, Seattle, Washington

For consistently providing many in-depth and thorough reviews, and for providing special assistance to the editors on controversial manuscripts.

JOURNAL OF ATMOSPHERIC AND OCEANIC TECHNOLOGY

SEIJI KATO

Research Associate Professor, Department of Physics, Hampton University, Hampton, Virginia

For exceptional effort in contributing thoughtful, thorough, and timely reviews that have helped maintain the high journal standards.

WEATHER AND FORECASTING

WILLIAM A. GALLUS

Associate Professor of Meteorology, Professor-in-Charge, Meteorology, Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa

For meticulous and thorough reviews that are always fair and helpful.

JOURNAL OF CLIMATE

TOM M. L. WIGLEY

Senior Scientist, National Center for Atmospheric Research, Boulder, Colorado

For his exceptionally constructive and insightful reviews that led to dramatic improvements in manuscripts.

JOURNAL OF HYDROMETEOROLOGY

ALAN ROBOCK

Professor II, Department of Environmental Sciences, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey

For providing timely, insightful and comprehensive reviews that have helped to ensure the publication of high quality research.

2007:

Journal of Atmospheric Science Editor's Award - Charmaine N. Franklin

"For providing several critical, nuanced and detailed reviews of challenging papers."

Journal of Applied Meteorology and Climatology Editor's Award - Alexander V. Ryzhkov

"For outstanding and insightful reviews related to polarization diversity radars and radar technology."

Journal of Physical Oceanography Editor's Award - Barry R. Ruddick

"For his detailed, constructive and timely reviews of difficult papers."

Monthly Weather Review Editor's Award - George H. Bryan

"For high-quality and penetrating reviews on a diverse range of topics, and for assisting in deliberations on several controversial manuscripts."

Journal of Atmospheric and Oceanic Technology Editor's Award - Graham Quartly

"For consistently providing timely and thoughtful evaluations of manuscripts in a constructive and supportive fashion."

Weather and Forecasting Editor's Award - David R. Bright

"For providing many in-depth and thorough reviews in a timely manner."

Journal of Climate Editor's Award - Bohua Huang

"For his continued contribution of outstanding, insightful and in-depth reviews."

Journal of Hydrometeorology Editor's Award - Randal D. Koster

"For timely, comprehensive and constructive reviews, benefiting the authors and the journal."

Bulletin of the American Meteorological Society Editor's Award - James L. Franklin

"For thorough and insightful comments on several manuscripts dealing with hurricane dynamics and forecasting."
