

Proposal for Named Symposium at AMS Meetings

The Nominator should submit this form no later than 1 May (targeting the Annual Meeting subsequent to the next year's meeting) or at least 18 months prior to a Specialty Conference to: Claudia Gorski, American Meteorological Society, 45 Beacon Street, Boston, MA 02108, or email to cgorski@ametsoc.org.

The Guidelines for Society and Commission Awards, Section H: Policy on Named Conferences/Symposia/Sessions and Special Collections of AMS Journals state:

“Recognition of scientists in the fields served by the AMS, living or deceased, in the form of a named conference or symposium or a named special collection of the Society’s journals is an honor reserved for only the most outstanding of our colleagues. It should be awarded only to those individuals who are completing a career, or who have recently died having completed a career, of significant achievements in their field and whose contributions would make them worthy of consideration for Honorary Member of AMS.”
